

ROYCROFT PHILOSOPHY

BY FRA ELBERTUS

We are traveling to the beautiful City of the Ideal. We are aware that we shall never reach it—but the suburbs are very pleasant.

It is not fanaticism that opposes progress—it is simply inertia. Thought leads the wear of existence, but it must be new thought.

The heroic man does not pose; he leaves that for the man who wishes to be thought heroic.

There are six requisites in every happy marriage. The first is Faith, and the remaining five are Confidence.

In explaining a theme to another it becomes luminous to ourselves.

Why not be a Top-Notcher? A Top-Notcher is simply an individual who works for the institution of which he is a part; not against it. To lose your identity in the business is one of the penalties of working for a great institution.

All beauty is but a symbol of spirit. A civil tongue and a deaf ear mean money in the bank.

You better be an Is-Now than a Has-Was, and as for a Not-Yet-But-Soon, why he is always one.

Environment counts for so little unless you help to make it. The highest wisdom often consists in mere passivity.

We gain freedom by giving it, and he who bestows faith gets it back with interest.

Genius is a capacity for evading hard work.

Society to Help Outrigger

The Outrigger Club is now preparing a grand fete on an elaborate scale showing what an advantage this club is to Honolulu. We have all watched with great interest the growing of this little club, the nucleus of which was planned and carried out by Mr. Alexander Hume Ford, Dr. F. H. Humphreys, Judge Ballou, Mr. James Wilder and Mr. Guy Rothwell. On arriving in Honolulu Mr. Alexander Hume Ford was much struck by the non-appreciation of one of Hawaii's greatest charms—the surf. He realized the old sport of riding the surf was dying out, and indulged at all, it was only the passing amusement of a few tourists.

This little club was formed to teach the children of Hawaii as well as the adults the art of swimming, surf-riding and canoeing—and make it possible by having the club to relieve this sport which was fast dying out. The Club has only been in existence a few months and already the character of the beach has changed and one sees numbers of people every day enjoying the exhilarating sports of the sea. The coming water carnival, which will occur on the afternoon and evening of November 7th, between the Moana and Seaside hotels will be one of the grandest spectacular events of the season.

Already amusements are being planned on a most elaborate scale—in which electrical effects will play an important part, making the progress of the surf boats and canoes seem like imprisoned lightning plowing through waters of fire. Dancing at the Seaside and Moana hotels will continue throughout the evening, the juvenile element being specially asked to the Seaside and the grown-ups at the Moana. A promenade will join the two hotels and seats are to be placed along the beach for the comfort of the guests. A kahuna gypsy will be one of the features of the evening, and for a slight sum will read your palm. There will also be lima lei sellers, a Hawaii booth, where one can eat both pig and poi; peanut and rose fortunes can be had, and daintily dressed gondolier girls, who will paddle you for a small sum, up and down the lagoon. Fancy dancing by the peerless Center girls and others can be seen, and lemonade and coffee booths will be an important feature. The patronesses for the Outrigger Club sports asked and to be asked are: Mrs. Frear, Mrs. Rees, Mrs. Moses, Mrs. Hornberger, Mrs. Langhorne, Mrs. Swaney, Mrs. S. B. Dole, Mrs. A. G. Hawes, Mrs. E. D.
